Redemption from Debt

Release through Yahshua our Kinsman Redeemer

Amrit Nathan

The Debt That Remains

When earthly life ends, the soul comes before the eternal Judge. An outstanding debt must be settled. The soul returns to another earthly life to make it good. This return is called reincarnation.

“Rabbi, who sinned, this man or his parents, that he was born blind?”
John 9:2

The question entertains wrongdoing before birth. Yahshua ruled out sin as the cause of this man’s blindness and revealed God’s work through healing. Through His authority and mercy, the afflicted receive release.

The Kinsman Redeemer

God’s law provides for a close relative to redeem someone from bondage. This is the Goel, the Kinsman Redeemer.

Yahshua became our Brother. Those who receive Him and believe in His name become children of God.

“Behold! The Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world!”
John 1:29

He gives His own life for us. Through His blood we have redemption and forgiveness. The price has been paid; we can acknowledge our guilt and receive His mercy.

Rest for the Redeemed

"Come to Me, all you who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest."

Matthew 11:28

Come acknowledging your guilt and trusting the redemption Yahshua has provided. Confess your sins and receive His forgiveness.

Having received mercy, extend it to those indebted to you. Lay up treasure in heaven and set your heart on the things of God.

The burdened debtor can find rest in Yahshua, the Kinsman Redeemer.

