The Second Cast

The Witness of the Unbroken Net

"Cast the net on the right side of the boat, and you will find some."

John 21:6, NKJV

Why did the net remain unbroken this time?

Two Catches, Two Witnesses

FIRST CAST • LUKE 5

The catch was great, but the net was breaking. Yahshua told Peter, 'From now on you will catch men.'

SECOND CAST • JOHN 21

The catch held 153 large fish. Yet, 'the net was not broken.'

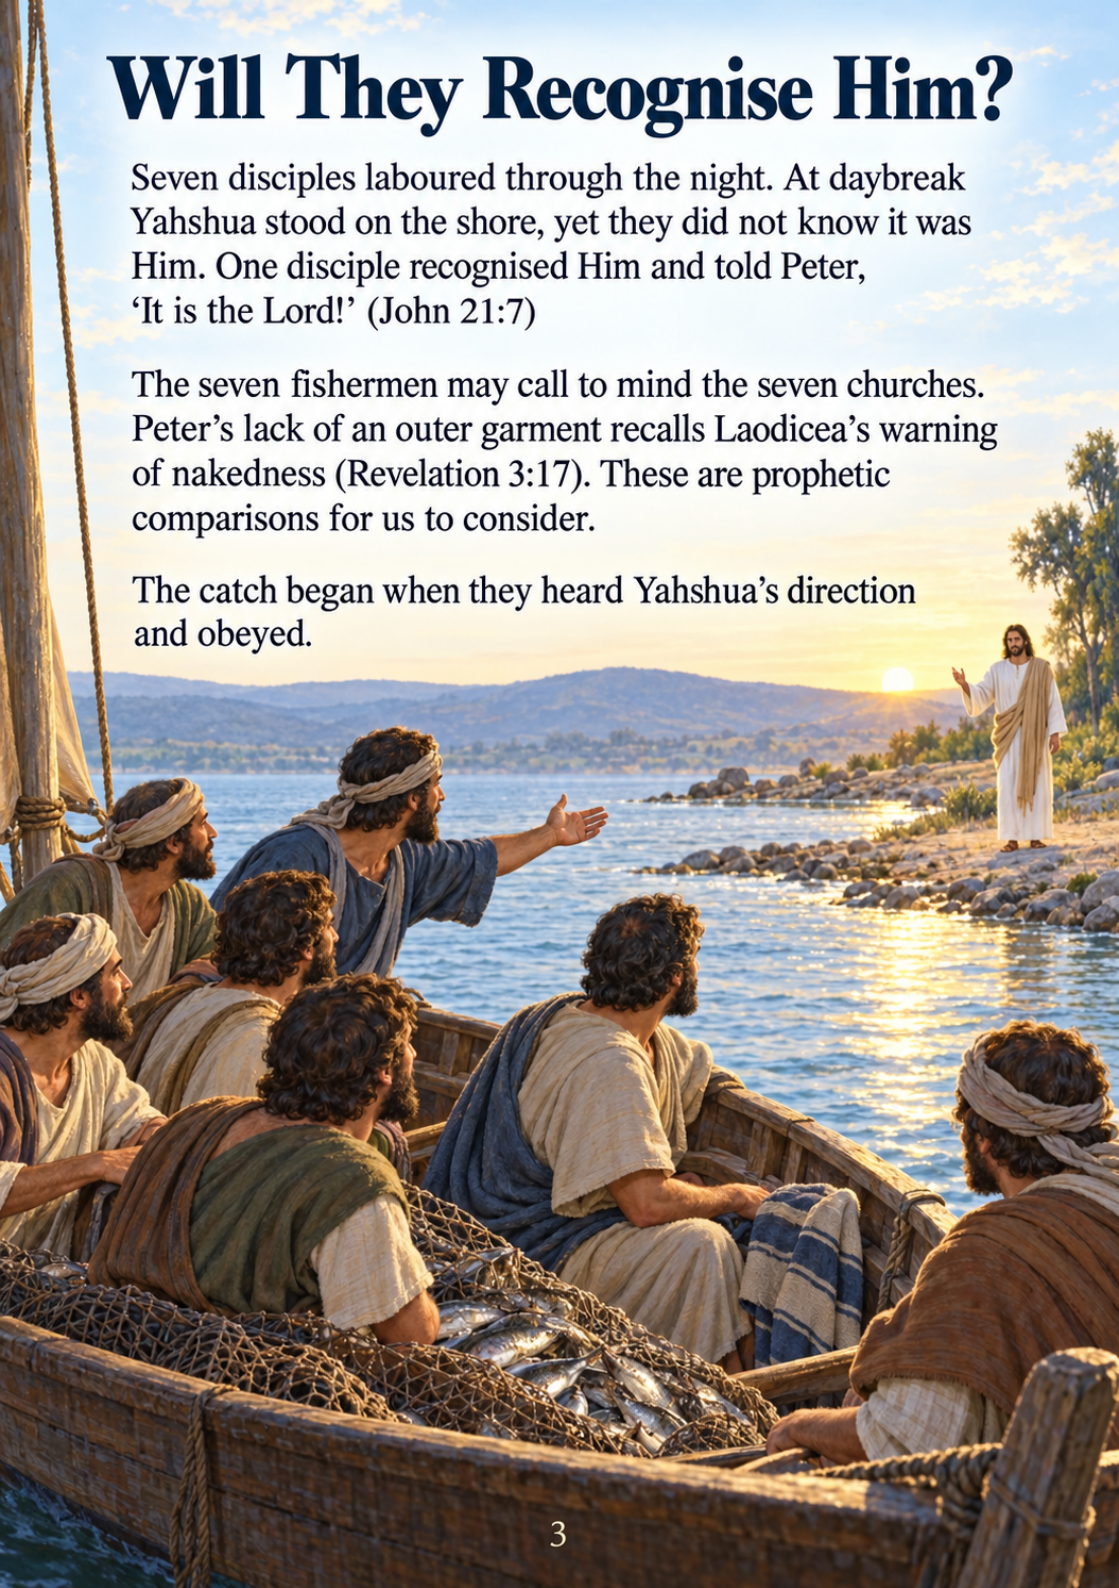

Could these two catches picture two worldwide witnesses to the Gospel?

Will They Recognise Him?

Seven disciples laboured through the night. At daybreak Yahshua stood on the shore, yet they did not know it was Him. One disciple recognised Him and told Peter, 'It is the Lord!' (John 21:7)

The seven fishermen may call to mind the seven churches. Peter's lack of an outer garment recalls Laodicea's warning of nakedness (Revelation 3:17). These are prophetic comparisons for us to consider.

The catch began when they heard Yahshua's direction and obeyed.

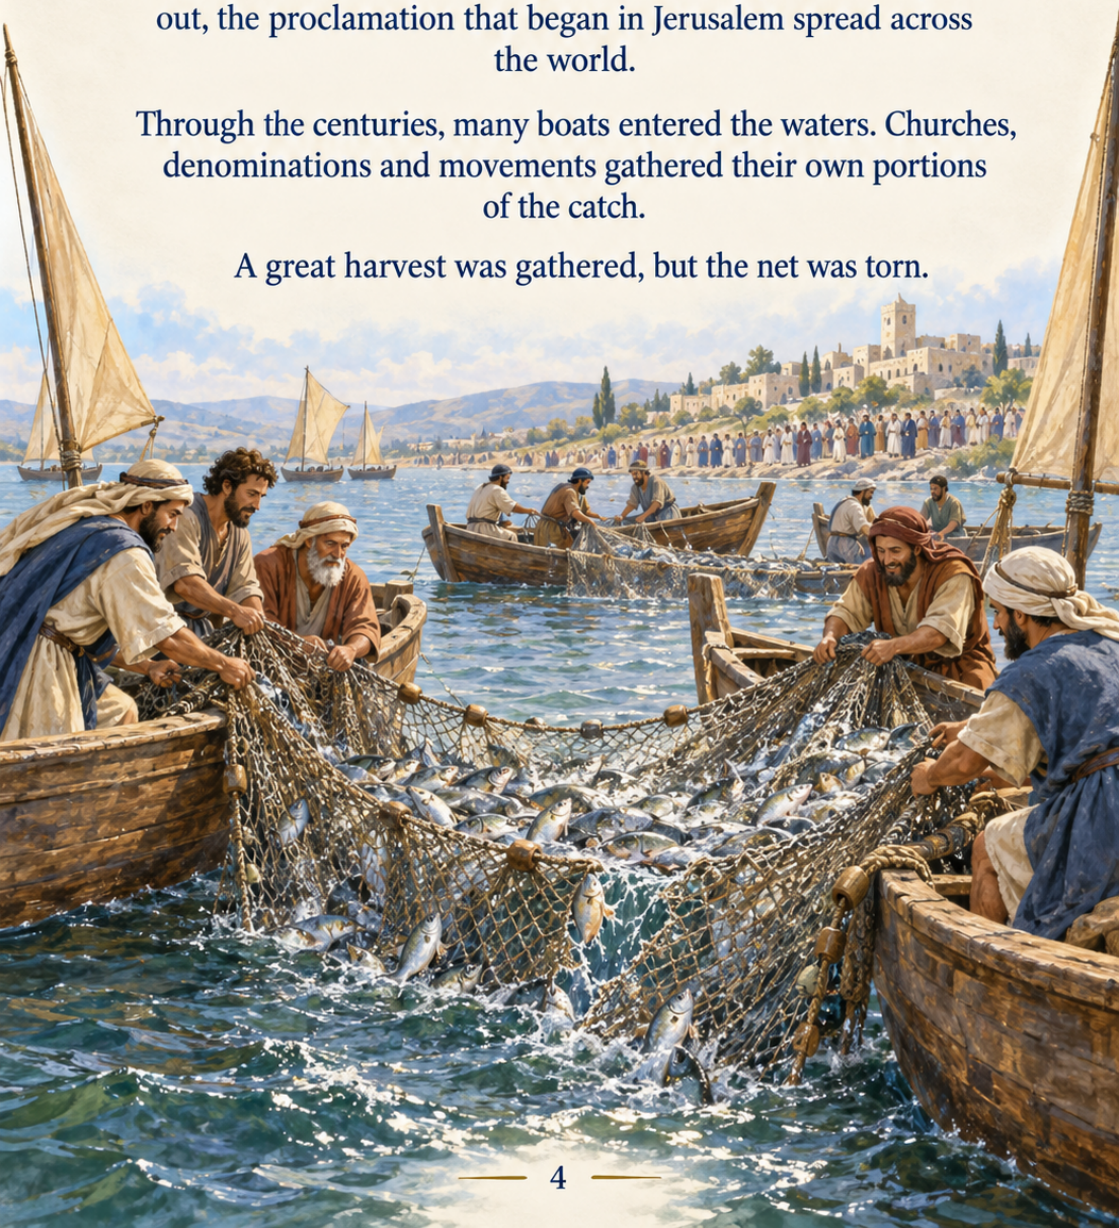

The First Commission

"He sent them to preach the kingdom of God and to heal the sick."
Luke 9:2, NKJV

Before Pentecost, the company had grown from twelve to about one hundred and twenty. When the Holy Spirit was poured out, the proclamation that began in Jerusalem spread across the world.

Through the centuries, many boats entered the waters. Churches, denominations and movements gathered their own portions of the catch.

A great harvest was gathered, but the net was torn.

The Second Commission

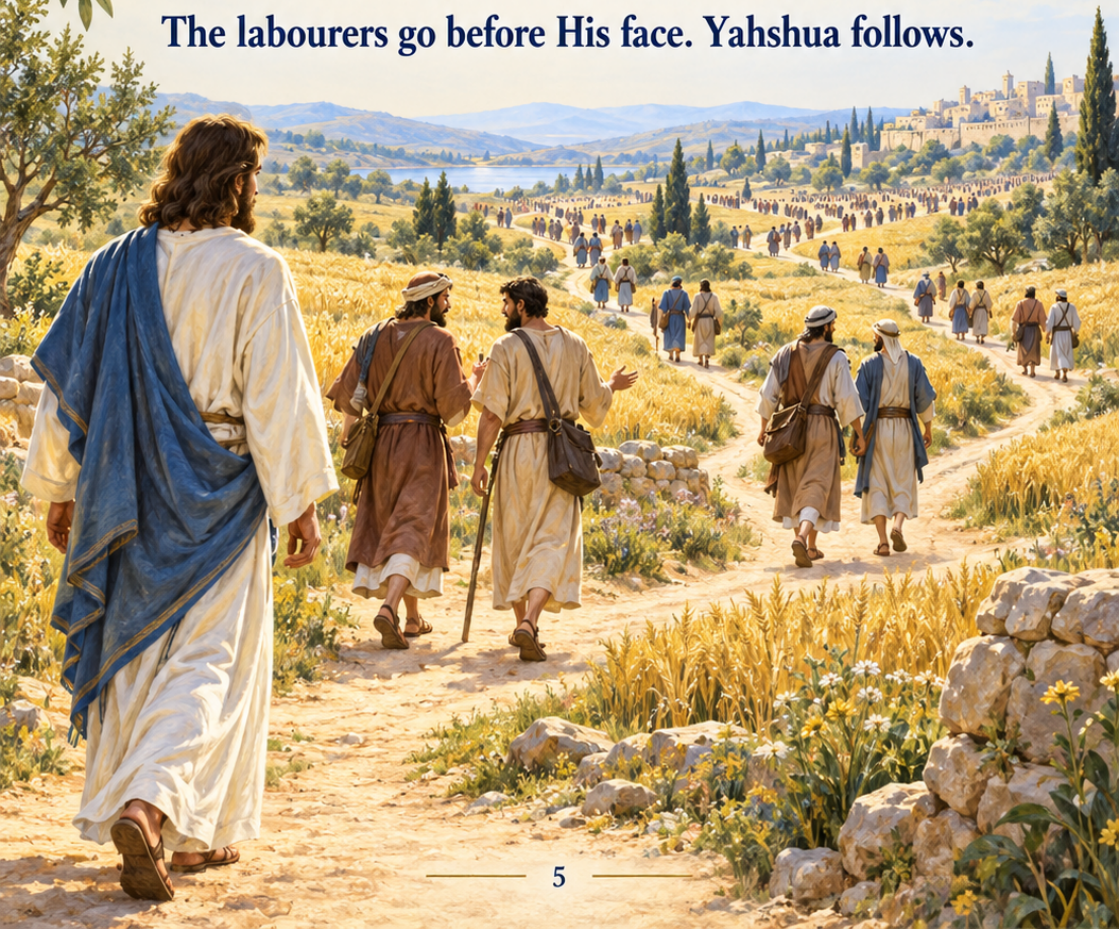

"The Lord appointed seventy-two others also, and sent them two by two before His face."
Luke 10:1

The harvest was great, and more labourers were needed. The seventy-two were sent in pairs into every place where Yahshua Himself was about to come.

72 × 2,000 = 144,000

Could this earlier mission foreshadow a much greater company sent in pairs before Yahshua's appearing?

The labourers go before His face. Yahshua follows.

The Witness of the Unbroken Net

Could the second commission bring the overcomers from the seven churches into one united fishing expedition, guided by Yahshua?

The 153 large fish may portray the fullness of the nations gathered through the final proclamation. Peter draws the unbroken net to shore and is then told, ‘Feed My sheep.’ (John 21:17)

This is a prophetic interpretation. Let each reader examine the pattern prayerfully.

They hear His voice.
They cast where He directs.
The harvest is great.
This time, the net does not break.
