SABBATH SHORTS

FOOD FOR THOUGHT

Remember the Sabbath

"Remember the Sabbath day, to keep it holy."
— Exodus 20:8

Yahovah did not merely recommend the Sabbath.
He explicitly commanded His people to remember it.

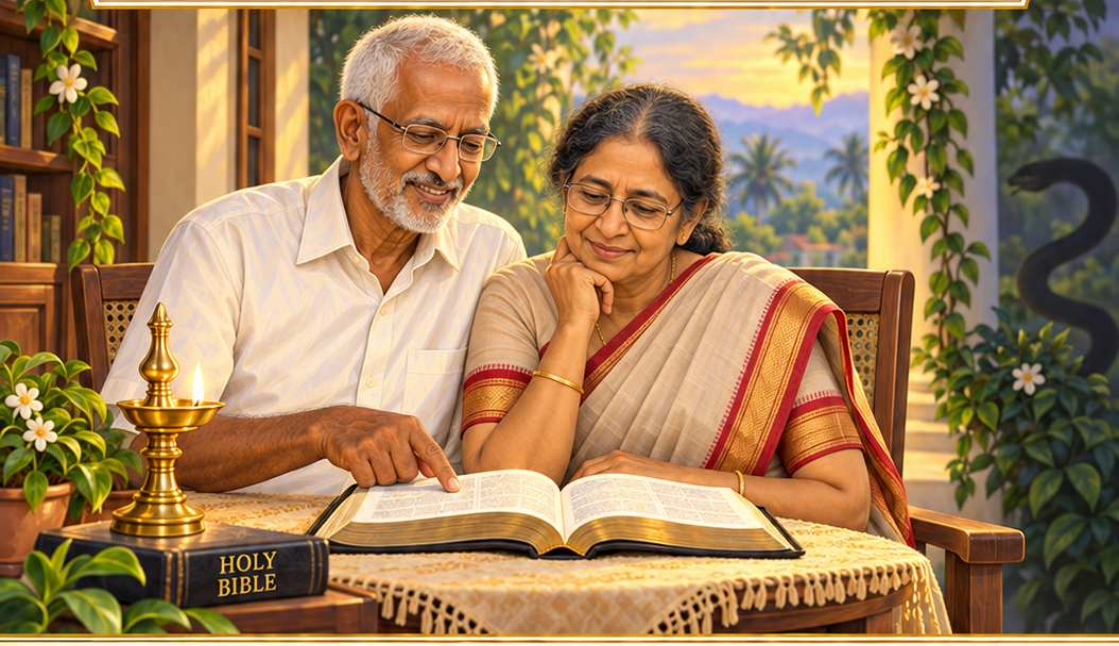

Of all the days of creation, Yahovah blessed and sanctified only the seventh day.

"Therefore the LORD blessed the Sabbath day and hallowed it."
— Exodus 20:11

SABBATH SHORTS

WHOSE VOICE WILL WE BELIEVE?

"If you love Me, keep My commandments."
— John 14:15

Our observance of the Sabbath is not merely obedience to a rule.
It is an expression of our love for Him.

In Eden, the serpent offered another interpretation of what God had said:

"Has God indeed said...?"
— Genesis 3:1

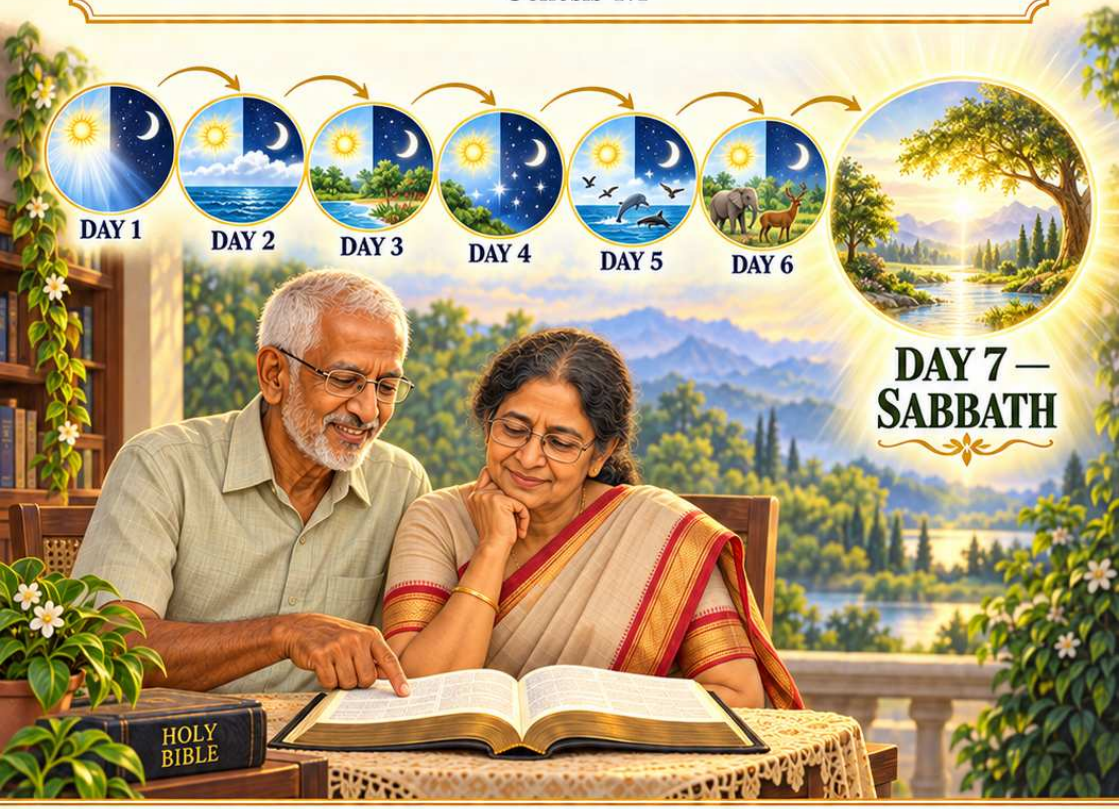

Eve listened to another voice and disobeyed.
We must not repeat her mistake.

Yahovah said, "The seventh day is the Sabbath."
Whose voice will we believe?

SABBATH SHORTS

THE DAY WITHOUT AN ENDING

"In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth."
— Genesis 1:1

Each of the first six days was marked by evening and morning.
But no evening and morning are recorded for the seventh day.

The seventh day points beyond created time—to the eternal realm of Yahovah, who has neither beginning nor end.

The Sabbath points backward to what Adam lost—and forward to what Yahshua came to restore.

PRACTISE ETERNITY NOW

Heaven and earth belong to the created order and will one day pass away.
Our true destination is the gift that Adam lost:

EVERLASTING LIFE

"For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son, that whoever believes in Him should not perish but have everlasting life."
— John 3:16

We bear the imprint of our Creator—like a divine code within our spiritual DNA. We were designed to reproduce His ideals, character and attributes: love, mercy and forgiveness.

The Sabbath invites us to cease from the works of the sixth day and begin practising the character of eternal life.

PRACTISE ETERNITY NOW— PRACTISE HIS LOVE, MERCY AND FORGIVENESS.

"Remember the Sabbath day, to keep it holy."
— Exodus 20:8
