THE WEDDING FEAST AT CANA

A Sabbath Missive

Amrit Nathan

Two Women and Two Kinds of Food

Eve saw that the tree was good for food.
Mary saw that they had no wine.

Eve acted against the word of God.
Mary directed the servants towards obedience.

"Whatever He says to you, do it."

John 2:5, NKJV

My Hour Has Not Yet Come

At Cana, Mary asked Yahshua to act before His appointed hour.

"My hour has not yet come."

John 2:4, NKJV

"The hour has come for the Son of Man to be glorified."

John 12:23

"Father, the hour has come."

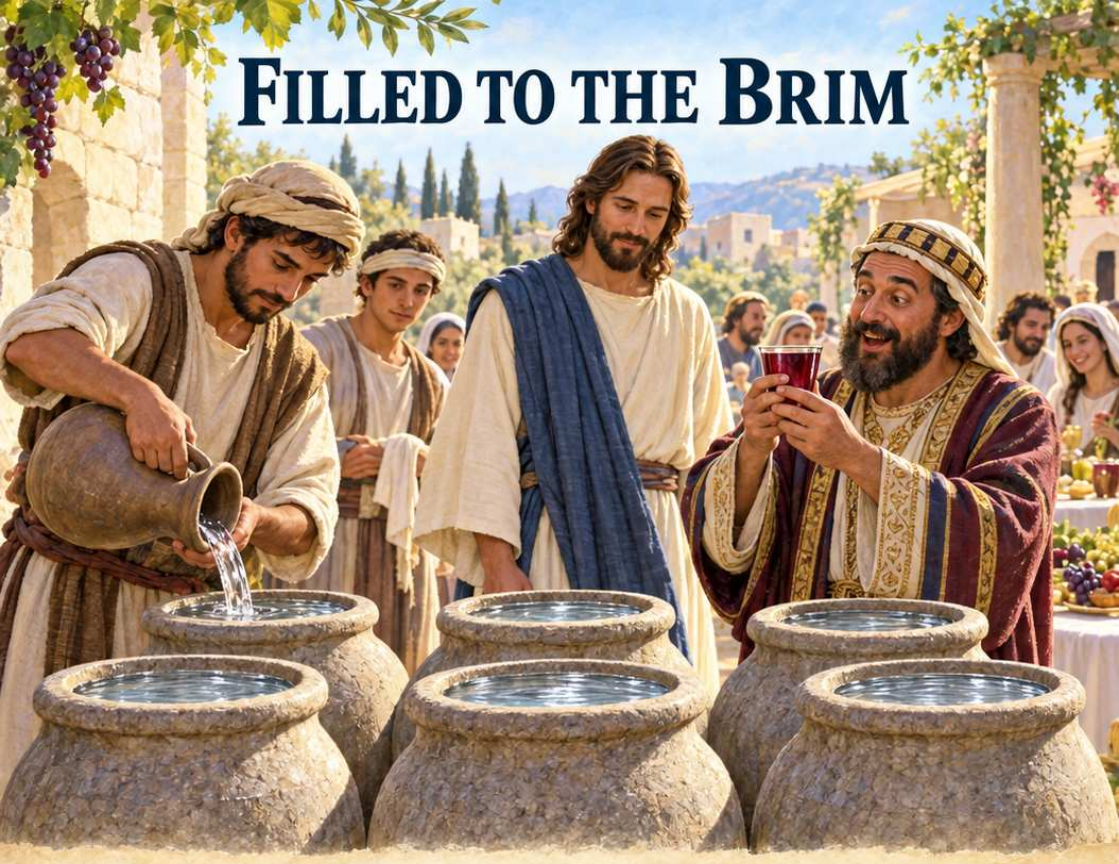

John 17:1

"The hour has come; behold, the Son of Man is being betrayed into the hands of sinners."

Mark 14:41

The first sign revealed beforehand the path He came to open:
from the physical to the spiritual, from purification to transformation.

Filled to the Brim

Six stone vessels point towards sixth-day humanity, formed from the earth. Even the human body is predominantly water.

At Yahshua's command, the vessels were filled to the brim. The water was then transformed into wine.

Wine speaks of Spirit. Through this first sign, Yahshua declared His mission: to transform earth-born, water-filled humanity into vessels of the Spirit.

"You have kept the good wine until now!"

John 2:10, NKJV

Will we allow Him to fill us and transform us?
